St. Cecilia's Temperance Society Holds Delightful Whist - Irving Green Moves to Place on Prospect Street - Personal Matters.

At the whist held Tuesday evening by St. Cecilia's Temperance society in the basement of St. Mary's church a good attendance was in evidence, there being about twenty tables. The lady's prize, a dish, was awarded to Miss Gallagher and Father Smith took the men's prize, a tobacco jar. A pleasant evening was enjoyed by all present.

Scotch Club Defeats Tipperary at Whist.
Tuesday evening a whist contest was held in Temperance hall between four experts of the Scotch and Tipperary clubs. The Tipperary club was represented by John Briley and John Brown while Edward McNeary and Patrick Shea played for the Scotch club. Messrs. McNeary and Shea were the winners, with a score of 9 to 1.

J. N. Society Elects Officers.
The J. N. society of Greenville met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Martha Broskofsky with a large attendance. The principal business of the evening was the election of officers for the coming year. The result of the election was as follows: President, Miss Martha Broskofsky; treasurer, Miss Martha L. Dombrowski; vice president, Miss Barbara Kruck.

Here and There.
Archibald Torrance of Bowwell avenue has purchased a new automobile.
Miss Alice Kilrow of White street has returned from a visit to New York.
William Leonard and Stephen Sullivan were in Holyoke Tuesday attending a funeral.

Mrs. James Knowles of Millville, N.
L. is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. James Service of Bowwell avenue.
Miss Claudia Parent is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Cayote of Eleventh street.

Mrs. Mary Kilcolum of Prospect street is able to be out after four weeks' illness with scarlet fever.
Irving Green and family, who have for many years resided on Eighth street, have moved to Prospect street.

Matthew Sullivan, who has been spending a few days in Waterbury, has returned to his home on Prospect

TAFTVILLE
New Bell to Be Presented to Sacred Heart School - Occum Fair Still Attracts Crowd - Village Notes.

A want long felt in the Sacred Heart parochial school has just been removed by the generosity of a parishioner. In the past the school has been without a suitable bell, but now a large one has been ordered and is to be hung in the cupola of the large new building.
The name of the donor has been withheld.

Many Attend Occum Fair.
Tuesday night a large crowd attended the Occum fair, many from this place being in evidence. The violin playing of Master Stubbs brought forth loud applause and the Miller sisters of Baltic gave a pleasing performance with their piano. The singing of the Misses Charon, also of Baltic, proved entertaining to the audience. The fair, which has been in progress for some time, is to close next Monday.

Items of Local Interest.
The repairing of the road on Hunter's avenue is well on its way to completion.
Anthony Fournier left Tuesday for Cortland, where he is to make his future home.
He Acts Like a Satisfied Man.
It may be true that Postmaster General Hitchcock is angry because the president has given Senator Crane a hand in distributing patronage, but he talks and acts like a man who is more interested in managing his department economically and making it self-sufficient than anything else, and was going to stay in office till he had completed that job, at least.

Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias Reports of the Officers Show the Order is Progressing—Those Selected for the Next Year.

The Knights of Pythias held their forty-second annual convention of the grand lodge of the order in New Haven this week. On Tuesday the business of the convention, which included the presentation of various reports, was taken up.
Much of the time was given to a discussion of a proposed plan for the revision of the laws of the order.

Grand Chancellor's Report.
Grand Chancellor L. Erwin Jacobs in his report said in part: Upon my return to New Haven after the convention of the grand lodge at New London I began my official visits until from that date to the present I have made 155 visits throughout the domain. I visited lodges from the 20th of October until Dec. 6, visiting five nights each week, having sent notice to the lodges and after the publishing and forwarding of circular No.
4 every lodge in the domain had full knowledge of the visits made and to be made.

I have made call after call when in poor physical condition, but never to be deterred from an engagement made I kept right on with the hope that some good would come from the visit, and I have not been disappointed. Then my only son, Emory, aged 14 years, after I had made 154 visits, official visitations and public installations. In addition to the visits to every lodge in the domain, and a second and third visit to nearly all the rest, I held what was a most successful public installation at New Haven on Jan. 10, 1910, when it was my privilege of installing the officers of lodges Nos. 1, 2, 5, 11, 52 and 49.

It suggests well for the order when we find that every lodge in the domain is exemplifying the work on candidates and adding to the list of members.
While no new lodges have been instituted during the year past, I am of the opinion, nevertheless, that the field is open for new lodges. Milford, New Milford and other places in the domain are fields that can and should be opened for new lodges. The increase during the year has been through the individual efforts of the members of the

NORWICH TOWN
Mrs. Jeanette Campbell Dies While on Fire—Waterless Auction—Miss Beckwith's New Work.

The death of Mrs. Jeanette Campbell of Otrabando avenue occurred early on Monday morning after a short illness, at the home of her brother-in-law, R. L. White, who she had gone for a few days' visit. She was born in Gloucester, Scotland, the daughter of James Stuart and Anne Turnbull Campbell. When she was quite young the family came to this country, living first in Glasgow, Scotland, and then in 1850 she married John Campbell of Voluntown. He enlisted in the civil war and was killed.

Mrs. Campbell was a member of the Central Baptist church. The serenity of her faith, her strength and poise characterized her life and thought for the home circle, made her dear to those who knew her best.
She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. P. Chase, a graduate of the Mrs. C. B. Eccleston, and a daughter, Mrs. Mary Manning, all of Norwich Town. She leaves two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. E. W. Lil-bridge of Plain Hill, Mrs. Mary Wilcox and James Campbell of Allenton, R. I., and John Campbell of Lafayette, R. I.

To Work in After School Club.
Miss Emily Beckwith left on Wednesday to begin her work in connection with the After School Club.
This club was organized in 1908 by Hamilton Wright Mable. Mrs. Grace, formerly president of the Congress of Mothers, is one of its promoters. The object of the club is to aid parents and teachers in the problem of children, and to reach the individual child.
There is a corresponding school and a mothers' council. Miss Jane Adams of Chicago is a leading member of the mothers' council. Miss Beckwith's work will be in New York state and western Pennsylvania.

Lively but Dry Auction.
There was a lively scene at the all-day auction on the F. H. Ellis place on Plain Hill on Tuesday. James H.
Hyde of North Franklin was the auctioner and things went at good prices.
Besides the horse, harness and farm implements and wagons, several horses were brought from outside to sell.
The auction was held on the place, so that horses and people had to do without all day. The caterer could not furnish food for all of the large number of persons who were here from long distances from towns around.

Celebrated Birthday.
Percy and Leroy Miner of Huntington avenue invited their playmates to their home on Wednesday afternoon, it being their eighth birthday. A merry time was spent and supper was served. The birthday cake being especially attractive.

Peat on Fire.
The peat in Bog meadow has been on fire and slowly burning since Sunday. There is more smoke than blaze and so far no harm has resulted. It is in an opposite direction and some distance from the place where the artisan wheels are being spun.

Tidings from All Points.
Miss Luma Ackley of Mystic was a recent guest of Miss Catherine Mallett of Town street.
Charles Bushnell of the Taftville road is in Bridgeport as a delegate at the meeting of the A. O. U. W. lodge.
Clement Perkins is moving from Scotland road to the F. H. Ellis place on Plain Hill, which he purchased this fall.
Miss Mary Freeman returned Wednesday to her home on Town street, after spending the summer with her sister in Stonington.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Creighton of New York are moving to the F. H. Ellis place on the Scotland road, which Mr.
Creighton has purchased.
On Wauwauk hill many wells are low, others have given out, and water lodes, assisted by those interested, and all increases have been without the aid of any new lodge. The full increase has been 17.

On the 15th of October, 1910, I had the pleasure of dedicating to the glory of Pythianism a beautiful monument erected by Unity lodge of Winsted at Winsted, before a large concourse of members of the order and friends of the order. Twenty years ago the Unity lodge dedicated its beautiful hall, the ceremonies being held on Oct. 2, and conducted by P. G. C. Gideon Welch.

Grand Recorder's Report.
Grand Recorder of Records and Seals Horace O. Case presented his report.
He said in part:
We have been blessed with peace, prosperity and harmony, the result of which is shown in many ways. While we have not added any new lodges, we have strengthened the old ones, and with the exception of three lodges all are in good condition.

During the past year I have visited 44 lodges and would have been pleased to have visited more had it not been for the sickness and death of my wife was unable to do so.
There are 17 subordinate lodges with 8,812 members.

Officers Elected.
Grand Master of Exchequer William N. Potter of Willimantic reported the balance in the treasury to be $3,019.97.

Although he was strongly supported by a large New Haven contingent, Attorney L. Erwin Jacobs of New Haven was elected grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of Connecticut Tuesday.
David Miller of Waterbury was given the post of grand secretary.

If you have not done so you should witness for yourself these present-day miracles. Go to the hall any open this week and see with your own eyes the wonders of Psychology. The marvelous power to heal the sick exhibited in public by the demonstrators of this system of healing not only astonishes the multitudes, but has convinced scientists that in this new force of nature lies a power which, if properly applied, is capable of effecting almost unlimited results in all chronic diseases, even in those that have heretofore been considered incurable.

During the last three days hundreds have witnessed the most remarkable demonstrations of healing the sick ever given in this city.

A short descriptive lecture, deeply interesting, outlining the work, preceded the demonstrations. The audience was then asked to supply the patients. A great number of persons, representing almost every kind of disease, rushed to the platform. As they formed a circle on and around the platform it seemed as though no human power could ever benefit most of them. Your mind was soon satisfied, however, that there was ready help for even the worst of them. Case after case was quickly disposed of, apparently to the entire satisfaction of the sufferers. Scarcely will permit of a detailed report.

It is an exhibition of rarest purity and of the most wonderful phenomena results which are in all chronic diseases, even in those that have heretofore been considered incurable.

These demonstrations are of the most wonderful character. They will excite anything ever attempted before in public, filled with serious and passionate scenes as well as wild and tragic. It is a healing of the soul, a healing of the body, a healing of the mind, a healing of the spirit, a healing of the whole man.
